Dave Rancourt Wins 2013 NSA Accountant of the Year Award

Alexandria, VA, September 9, 2013 – Dave Rancourt, EA, ATA, ABA, ARA, CSA of Sarasota, FL, received the 2013 Accountant of the Year Award from the National Society of Accountants (NSA).

“NSA is pleased to present this award to Dave Rancourt in recognition of his outstanding achievement and service to NSA, the accounting and tax profession, the state society, and the community,” said Harlan Rose, Past President, National Society of Accountants.

Rancourt received the award in August 2013 at the NSA Annual Meeting in Indianapolis, IN. He has been an active member of NSA for nearly 25 years, currently serving as Vice Chair of Federal Taxation Committee and was recently appointed to Accreditation Council for Accountancy and Taxation (ACAT) Board. He is a past Florida State Director and also was president of the Florida Society of Accountants in 2000.

Rancourt has been in practice for 45 years and currently principal of Rancourt & Rancourt, Inc. . His involvement with his state accounting association was the first step toward his long and active involvement with the National Society of Accountants.

“I am thankful and humbled by this award,” said Rancourt. “I am joining a great group of recipients and am very appreciative of this award.”

Rancourt holds the credentials of Enrolled Agent (EA), Accredited Tax Advisor (ATA), Accredited Business Accountant (ABA), Certified Senior Advisor (CSA), and Accredited Retirement Advisor (ARA).
