Joel Grandon Elected NSA President

ALEXANDRIA, VA, September 9, 2019 – Joel Grandon, LPA, EA, ARA, of Joel Grandon Accounting Services Inc. in Marion, Iowa, was elected to the position of President of the National Society of Accountants (NSA) at the NSA 7th Annual Convention held August 21-24, 2019 in Charlotte, North Carolina.

“NSA’s reason for being is a simple one: to help our members achieve success in the profession of accountancy and taxation,” Grandon said. “This year, we will continue to expand on that purpose and forward the interests of accounting and tax professionals across the USA.”

Actively engaged in NSA for numerous years, Grandon served as NSA First Vice President, 2018-2019 and NSA District VII Governor, 2014-2018. Currently Grandon serves on the Accountants Association of Iowa (AAI) board as Treasurer and has served in each line officer position including AAI President from 2004-2005.

Grandon is a Licensed Public Accountant (LPA) in Iowa, a licensed Enrolled Agent (EA) and holds the Accredited Retirement Advisor (ARA) credential from the Accreditation Council for Accountancy and Taxation.
